Pastor Tim Schieck

Read Ecclesiastes 9:13-10:20 (Groups: read it twice with different readers)

What is the writer of Ecclesiastes illustrating about wisdom with the example given in 9:13-16?

What things are surprising or unexpected in this example?

What virtues of wisdom are given in this passage? What limitations of wisdom are shown?

Where do you struggle to live wisely?

The writer has wrestled for 10 chapters with the concept of vanity, that all of life including wisdom itself is a quickly passing thing. How can we live wisely in a way that is lasting and permanent?
