SERMON NOTES

STUDY QUESTIONS

Read Colossians 1:15-18 (Groups: read it twice with different readers)

When did you begin a relationship with Jesus? How old were you? What do you remember thinking of him and about him at that time? Has your view of him changed since the early days of your Christian life?

What past or current false teachings about the nature of Jesus Christ are addressed by these verses?

Why does Paul call Jesus “the firstborn of all creation”? Does this mean God the Son was created? What rights, privileges, and glories is Paul referring to in calling Jesus the first-born?

Read John 1:3 and Hebrews 1:3. What was God the Son’s role in creation and what is his role in sustaining all that exists? How should these truths impact the way we pray?

Churches can slowly and (at first) unnoticeably drift away from following Jesus as their head. How can our church, together, and you, as an individual part of the whole, help make sure that does not happen?

Is Jesus preeminent in your life? If he is not, who or what is? How can you think about him, worship him, and love him more each day?
