Discussion & Application Questions
Read John 21

How would you describe Peter based on reading John's Gospel? What encouragement and hope does John want all readers to take from Peter's growth?

What do you learn from the way Jesus restores Peter? How is the mercy of Jesus evident in this scene?

Why is Peter concerned with the other disciple? How does Jesus' refocusing of Peter help all of us as disciples of Jesus?

What is at the heart of Christian discipleship? Why is the simplicity of a call to follow Jesus a necessary and good reminder for you?

Read John 1:7 and 1:37-40. How does remembering these verses from the beginning of this Gospel help bring it to a fitting conclusion?

Questions for Kids

Read 1 Peter 2:21-25. How do you think these words written by Peter connect to what Jesus told Peter at the end of the Gospel?

Do you think it will always be easy to follow Jesus? How can you prepare to follow him even if it is difficult?
